PUBLISHING YOUR SUBMISSION

All submissions provided by children and young people will be given a code number (de-identified) and given a pseudonym (fake name) so we can protect your privacy (keep your name and story secret). ACYP will also review all information prior to publishing it to check there is no private information being shared. However, we would like to be able to publish all or part of your submission (story) on the website using a pseudonym, if you agree. We will not publish any of your contact details (real name, address, phone no, email). Submissions made by people representing children and young people can be made public, and we could publish your name, if you agree.

Do you give permission for ACYP to:

Publish all of your submission (your story) but use a fake name?

Keep part of the submission (your story) confidential (secret/private)?

Keep all of the submission (your story) confidential (secret/private)?

Publish all of the submission and publish your name

(only if you're a carer/caseworker/out of home care provider/other interested individual)
